Help children with cancer and blood conditions by donating books to the Valerie Fund. The Valerie Fund is an organization that helps kids with cancer and blood disorders. They help entertain and make their stay at the hospital feel more like home.

What is needed: Gently used books for children from preschool to 8th grade

When: Books collected from January 18-February 8th

Where: Place books in bin by the front door

All the books will be donated to The Valerie fund, who will distribute the books to children in local hospitals. Local hospitals include Morristown Medical Center, St. Barnabas, Newark Beth Israel, Columbia University, and Cancer Institute of NJ to name a few.

Help make a difference and donate your books today!

This is a Boy Scout project that will help me earn my Citizenship in the Community merit badge. Help me help this great charity.
